

FIGHT RURAL CRIME EVENT

The Bell Hotel Winslow on Monday 8 November 2010

This idea was originally conceived as a result of the thoughts and actions of Mr J Cornish and others at Stewkley Milling Services. This event has now come to fruition as a result of working with many other partners.

There will be three sessions of presentations from:

Thames Valley Police....Rural Inspector Emma Garside----

Rural Crime Matters

What Thames Valley Police are doing for you and what you need to do to help?

NFU Buckingham/Aylesbury....Graham Hall and Virginia Stollery.

Guidance on all aspects of farm and rural security via the NFU

Country Landowners Association....Tim Broomhead,

Guidance of legal matters CLA guidelines

FARM ALERT/KRAMP UK.....Andy Sapwell

Demonstration of an agricultural vehicle tracking device

Sessions commence 4pm, 6pm and 8pm, for approximately an hour and a half. Spaces are limited. This event has been organised by:

Phil Gomm, Vice Chairman TV Crimestoppers, Jersey Farm, Granborough. To book please call 01296 670533

There will be other partners present during evening, including Horse/Country Watch, Cesar (Datatag) and AVDC Community Safety Partnership

COME ALONG AND HAVE YOUR SAY WITH YOUR OPINION OF CRIME

